CERTIFICATION AND RECERTIFICATION OF MBE/DBE FIRMS CERTIFICATION GUIDELINES

The integrity of any MBE/DBE Program depends, to a large extent, upon the establishment of systematic procedures to ensure that only bona fide firms are certified to participate in the program. In order to ensure consistency with the established certification guidelines, the BCIA has adopted the following eligibility standards and procedures.

Although it is the applicant's responsibility to submit the required information in a notarized document, under penalty of perjury, it is the BCIA's responsibility to certify that the applicant's firm meets the eligibility to standards set forth. The burden of proof of eligibility shall rest with the applicant.

Applicants seeking certification under this program must provide a complete statement explaining why they are socially and economically disadvantaged. Certification of applicants of other member groups who have not been identified by the BCIA to be socially and economically disadvantaged will be done a case-by-case basis only.

The office of the Executive Director of the BCIA handles all of the initial applications for certification and re-certification and is responsible for compliance with the eligibility standards.

The Executive Director shall initially certify and annually re-certify MBE/DBE firms. The certification process shall consist of three separate procedures: (1) Waiver of Certification Procedure; (2) Initial Certification Procedure; and (3) Re-certification Procedure.

1. WAIVER OF CERTIFICATION PROCEDURE

Any firm which is certified as meeting MBE/DBE criteria by the U.S. Department of Transportation or Urban Mass Transit Authority (UMTA) or has attained SBA- 8A status will be considered for waiver of the certification process upon presentation of its certificate of such status to the BCIA Executive Director.

To apply for a waiver, one must submit a request for waiver, which must be submitted to the Executive Director who shall make a final and binding decision with respect to waiving the Authority's certification process. Applicant requesting the wavier shall complete certification application for information purposes.

2. INITIAL CERTIFICATION PROCEDURE

MBE/DBE firms, which do not qualify for a waiver, may apply to the BCIA for certification. The application packet for initial certification may be obtained from the BCIA office or at the BCIA website at www.bcia1.org it contains the following:

- Guidelines
- Application for certification
- Statement of social or economic disadvantage status

Under the criteria for certification, there is a rebuttal presumption that minority-owned and women-owned businesses are MBE/DBE firms. For the purposes of this Plan, the term "MBE/DBE" or other disadvantaged minorities, or in the case of a publicly owned business, at least 51% of the ownership of said business is owned by African Americans or blacks, women or other disadvantaged minorities. This presumption applies only to businesses actually owned and managed by blacks, women, or other disadvantaged minorities for a credible period of time. The administrative rules and regulations, which define what time period constitutes a "credible" period, are contained this document. Any business entity may be certified as a MBE/DBE firm upon a showing that is has suffered discrimination or is disadvantaged in the American Construction Industry. By initial certification and periodic re-certification, the BCIA program will focus upon businesses that continue to suffer a disadvantaged status in the Birmingham area. Beneficiaries of this program shall be MBE/DBE firms indigenous to the metropolitan Birmingham area and MBE/DBE firms, which establish offices (branches) and maintain a reasonable staff presence in the Birmingham area.

3. PROCEDURE FOR RENEWAL OF CERTIFICATION

Once certified, a MBE/DBE shall update its certification annually by submitting an application for re-certification to the Executive Director of the BCIA no later than one (1) year following the date of initial certification. Failure to submit a re-certification application will automatically result in de-certification from the program. If at any time there is a change in ownership or control of the firm, the MBE/DBE shall submit a new certification application to the BCIA reflecting the change in ownership.

DEFINITIONS

1. "Minority Business Enterprise" (MBE) is a business controlled by and a majority of which is owned by African Americans or blacks. Under the criteria for certification, there is a rebuttal presumption that black-owned businesses are MBE firms. For the purpose of this Plan, the term "MBE" means a business at least 51% of which is owned by blacks, or in the case of publicly owned business, at least 51% of the stock of said business is owned by blacks. This presumption applies only to businesses actually owned and managed by blacks. By initial certification and periodic re-certification, the Plan will focus upon businesses that continue to suffer a disadvantaged status in the Birmingham area. A showing that the firm no longer suffers a disadvantaged status in the Birmingham area will result in denial certification or re-certification. Beneficiaries of the Plan shall be MBE firms, which establish offices (branches) and maintain a reasonable staff presence in the Birmingham Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area.
2. "Disadvantaged Business Enterprise" (DBE) is defined as business concern currently doing business and/or located in the Birmingham Metropolitan statistical area, meeting the following criteria:

- a. Which is at least 51% owned, by one or more socially and economically disadvantaged individuals, or in the case of a publicly owned business, at least 51% of the stock is owned by disadvantaged individuals.
- b. Whose management and daily business operations are controlled by one or more of the socially, and economically disadvantaged individuals who own it.
- c. Under the criteria for certification, there is a rebuttal presumption that women-owned businesses are DBE firms. For the purpose of this Plan, the term "DBE" mean a business at least 51% of which is owned by women or other disadvantaged minorities, or in the case of a publicly owned business, at least 51% of the stock of said business is owned by women or other socially and economically disadvantaged persons. This presumption applies only to businesses actually owned and managed on a day-to-day basis by women or other such disadvantaged person for credible period of time. Any business entity may be certified as a DBE firm upon showing that it has suffered discrimination or continues to suffer a disadvantaged status in the Birmingham area.

Beneficiaries of this plan shall be DBE firms indigenous to the metropolitan Birmingham area, and DBE firms, which establish offices (branches) and maintain a reasonable staff presence in the Birmingham area.

- a) "Socially Disadvantaged Individuals" means individuals who have been subject to racial or ethnic prejudice or cultural bias because of their identity as a member of a group without regard to their qualities as individuals or capabilities as a business.

- b) "Economically Disadvantaged Individuals" means socially disadvantaged individuals whose ability to compete in the free enterprise system is impaired due to diminished opportunities to obtain capital and credit as compared to others in the same line of business that are not socially disadvantaged.
- c) A "credible" period of time means a sufficient period of time to show that the firm is not simply operating as a front for some person or entity, which does not qualify for certification as a DBE. An example would be that a business normally would not be certified merely because ownership was transferred from a husband to a wife.
- d) A "front" means a firm, which is not truly owned and controlled by socially and economically, disadvantaged individual(s).

MINORITY GROUP MEMBERSHIP

In determining minority group membership, it is important that bona fide minority group membership be established on the basis of the individual's claim that he or she is a member of a minority group and is so regarded by that particular minority community.

In cases where the racial/ethnic origin is in question, the BCIA will require the applicant to prove his or her minority status.

The following documents will be required as applicable:

- a) Proof of membership and interaction in recognized minority organizations.
- b) Birth certificates and/or driver's license.
- c) Naturalization papers.
- d) Indian tribal roll, tribal voter registration certificate, or other official documents.
- e) History of individual having held himself/herself to be a member of the minority group or community (driver's license, school, medical and service records).

- f) Recognition of applicant in the particular minority community as a minority through sworn and notarized statements from bona fide members the community who are clearly disinterested parties.
- g) History of individual's economic and social disadvantaged status as it to ethnic group membership.

BUSINESS SIZE AND STRUCTURE

The BCIA will consider the size and financial capabilities of the firm for MBE/DBE eligibility as it relates to being economically disadvantaged.

OWNERSHIP, EXPERTISE, AND CONTROL CITIZENSHIP

The following standards shall be used by the BCIA in determining whether a firm is owned, managed and controlled by socially and economically disadvantaged individuals and therefore eligible to be certified as a MBE/DBE.

1. If this owner is not a U.S. citizen, check the appropriate box that indicates whether this owner is a lawfully admitted permanent resident. If this owner is neither a U.S. citizen nor a lawfully admitted permanent resident of the U.S., then this owner is NOT eligible for certification as a DBE owner. This, however, does not necessarily disqualify your firm altogether from the DBE program if another owner is a U.S. citizen or lawfully admitted permanent resident and meets the program's other qualifying requirements.
2. An eligible MBE/DBE shall be an independent business:
 - a) The ownership and control shall be real, substantial, and continuing and shall go beyond the pro forma ownership of the firm as reflected in its ownership documents. The MBE/DBE will not be dependent upon or connected with another

- business that is not a MBE/DBE, as evidenced by such items as multiple shared resources, common employees, common directors, or the payment of the MBE/DBE's payroll by a non-MBE/DBE firm.
- b) The MBE/DBE owners shall enjoy the customary incidents of ownership and shall share in the risks and profits commensurate with their ownership interests, as demonstrated by an examination of the substance rather than the form of the arrangements.
 - c) For purposes of certification as a business owned by a woman, ownership shall be measured as though not subject to the property interest of the applicant's spouse, if (A) both spouses certify in writing that the non-participating spouse relinquishes control over his property interest in the subject business and (B) the husband does not exercise any control over the business, including serving as a corporate director, being an employee involved in the functional mission of the business, or acting as a paid consultant to the business.
 - d) Recognition of the business as a separate entity for tax purposes is not necessarily sufficient for recognition as a MBE/DBE. In determining whether a potential MBE/DBE is an independent business, the BCIA shall consider all relevant factors, including date the business was established, method of acquisition, the adequacy of its resources for the work of the contract, and the degree to which financial, equipment leasing, and other relationships with non-MBE/DBE firms vary from industry practice.
3. The MBE/DBE owner(s) shall direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of the firm and make the day-to-day as well as major decisions on matters of management policy and operations.
 - a) The firm shall not be subject to any formal or informal restrictions, which limit the customary discretion of the MBE/DBE. There shall not be restrictions through, for example, bylaw provisions, partnership agreements, or charter requirements for cumulative voting rights or otherwise that prevent the MBE/DBE owners from making a business decision for the firm
 - b) The MBE/DBE applicant who own the majority interest in or assets of a business must exercise independently the authority to control the business decisions of the business. Characteristic of such control is the authority to (1) sign bids and contracts, (2) make price negotiation decisions, (3) incur liabilities for the business, (4) independently make bank loans and lease agreements, (5) make personnel decisions, (6) establish policy for the business, (7) direct the management of the business, (8) independently make any financial decision on behalf of the business, and (9) sell or liquidate at will.
 4. If the owners of the firm who are not MBE/DBE's are disproportionately responsible for the operation of the firm, then the firm is not controlled by the MBE/DBE and shall not be considered a MBE/DBE within the meaning of the BCIA Policy. Here the actual management of the firm is contracted out to individuals other than the owner, those persons who have ultimate power to hire and fire the managers can, for the purpose of the BCIA Policy, be considered as controlling the business.
 5. All securities which constitute ownership and/or control by a corporation for purposes of establishing it as a MBE/DBE shall be held directly by the MBE/DBE. No securities held in trust, or by any guardian for a minor shall be considered as held by the MBE/DBE in determining the ownership and control of a corporation.

6. The contribution of capital or expertise by the MBE/DBE owners to acquire their interests in the firm shall be real and substantial. Evidence of the owner's expertise shall be submitted with the application for certification. Normally, the owner shall have demonstrable skills or knowledge of the field of endeavor in which certification is sought, including licenses where required.
7. Examples of insufficient contributions include a promise to contribute capital, a note payable to the firm or its owners who are not MBE/DBE's or the mere participation as an employee in actual terms, rather than as an owner.
8. In addition to the above standards, the BCIA shall closely scrutinize the following situations when determining the eligibility of newly formed firm.
 - a. Firms whose ownership and/or control have changed prior to or since the date of an advertised contract or proposal
 - b. A previous and/or continuing employer-employee relationship between or among present owners.
 - c. MBE/DBE applicants who have been recently employed by a non- MBE/DBE firm in the same field of endeavor will be restricted by the BCIA from being certified or listed on contracts or agreements as a MBE/DBE firm for a period of one year.
9. A joint venture is eligible under the BCIA's policy provided the joint venture meets the standards for the eligible MBE/DBE set forth above and the MBE/DBE partner is responsible for a clearly defined portion of the work to be performed and shares in ownership, control, management responsibilities, risks, and profits of the joint venture.

10. A business requesting to be certified as a MBE/DBE or joint venture by the BCIA shall cooperate with the BCIA in supplying additional information, which may be requested in order to make determination. Willful failure to supply the requested information in a timely manner will result in the BCIA rendering the application incomplete. MBE/DBE firms and joint venture applicants who willfully fail to provide the additional requested information will be prohibited from applying for certification for a six-month period.

LOCATION OF MBE/DBE FIRMS

All applicants under this program must have a principal place of business located in an independent office or other type of facility conducive to the type of business for which that firm is seeking certification. If a MBE/DBE is primarily performing or operating at the location of a non-MBE/DBE firm in the same field of endeavor, then that MBE/DBE firm will not be considered an eligible MBE/DBE under this program. Applicants whose offices are primarily housed in the confinements of their homes will be closely scrutinized per the nature of their business in ascertaining their eligibility.

RESTRICTIVE CERTIFICATION

The BCIA may restrict the certification of the MBE/DBE to their expertise in their field of endeavor. The applicant must submit a resume of their operational experience in the field for which they seek certification. The BCIA will consider on a case-by-case basis the experience level required for certification. The BCIA will restrict the MBE/DBE applicant from being listed as a MBE/DBE subcontractor or participant on contracts or proposals by a non-MBE/DBE firm who shares or provides ownership interest in that MBE/DBE firm.

COMMERCIAL USEFUL FUNCTION

The MBE/DBE shall perform a commercially useful function and is responsible for the execution of a distinct element of the work of a contract and must actually perform, manage, and supervise the work involved. Consistent with normal industry practices, a MBE/DBE may subcontract no more than forty nine percent of a contract being counted toward the applicable MBE/DBE participation goals. If the subcontract is of a significantly greater portion of the work than would be expected on the basis of normal industry practices, the MBE/DBE shall be presumed to not be performing a commercially useful function. Brokering in many instances will not be considered performing a commercially useful function.

DECERTIFICATION

The BCIA reserves the right to revoke the certification of a MBE/DBE firm. The BCIA at any time during the certification or re-certification period of a MBE/DBE may audit the application and supporting documents of that firm at a location determined by the BCIA. Such audits may be conducted at the MBE/DBE office. The revoking of a MBE/DBE certification will result in that firm being removed from the list of certified MBE/DBE's for a minimum period of two years.

The following are reasons for revoking certification or for refusing to re-certify a MBE/DBE:

- a) Certified MBE/DBE firms are joint ventures who are not performing a commercially useful function as required by this policy.
- b) MBE/DBE applicants submitting inaccurate, false, or incomplete information to gain certification or re-certification as a MBE/DBE.
- c) Third party information. (See challenges and complaints).
- d) The ownership or control of the business changes so that it no longer meets the eligibility standard established by these guidelines.
- e) Certified MBE/DBE's whose primary business provides an unfair advantage in the market place and is not conducive to meeting the independent business requirements of these guidelines, for certification.

- f) All applications waiver, certification, and re-certification shall be submitted to the BCIA's Executive Director. The determination of eligibility will be made by the Executive Director and sent the applicant in writing within a reasonable period following receipt of the application.
- g) MBE/DBE applicants who fail provide requested information in a specified time will not be considered eligible for submission of an application for certification for a period not less than six months.

DENIAL OF CERTIFICATION OR RECERTIFICATION

If the Executive Director denies certification or re-certification, then the applicant may appeal to the Board of Directors of the BCIA by submitting a written statement describing fully the basis for the appeal within two weeks of the receipt of the denial. The Board of Directors will then make a decision based upon the written submission and the file of the Executive Director. The denial of certification or re-certification by the Executive Director shall be effective immediately. If there is no appeal, then the decision of the Executive Director is final and binding. If there is an appeal, the decision of the Board of Directors shall be final and binding and no appeal or challenge will be made thereto. The firm shall not participate in the MBE/DBE program and shall not be eligible to re-apply for certification until one (1) year from the date of the initial denial letter. A denial of certification or re-certification does not prohibit the applicant's firm from bidding on any contract.

RECERTIFICATION

Once certified, a MBE/DBE shall update its certification annually by submitting an application for re-certification to the Executive Director by December 31st. Failure to submit a re-certification application will automatically result in de-certification from the program. If at any time there is a change in ownership or control of the firm, the MBE/DBE shall submit a new certification application to the BCIA reflecting the change in ownership.

RECIPROCAL CERTIFICATION

The BCIA reserves the right to make its own determination of certification, even though the firm has been certified by any other Federal, State, or local entity. Certification by other entities, including certification of 8(a) status by the SBA will be considered but will not be binding upon the BCIA or the Executive Director.

CHALLENGES AND COMPLAINTS

Third parties who have reason to believe that another firm has been wrongly denied or granted certification as a MBE/DBE or joint venture may advise the BCIA. These allegations do not have to be in writing and the person(s) making the allegation shall receive anonymity, if requested, in order to avoid or reduce the possibility of reprisal or retaliation. Where such allegations are made directly to the BCIA, the BCIA will document it, investigate, and determine what action, if any, is warranted. Where the complaint involves criminal violations, referrals will be made to the appropriate legal enforcement authority to decide if further action is warranted.

DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

The BCIA shall safeguard from disclosure to unauthorized persons information that reasonably may be regarded as confidential business information.

MBE/DBE Certification Application

A voluntary program for certification of and assistance to Minority and Disadvantaged business enterprises in the construction industry.

Certification Frequently Asked Questions

What is BCIA?

Birmingham Construction Industry Authority (BCIA) is an agency created to implement a disadvantaged business enterprise program in the construction industry. It was founded in 1989 and opened for service in 1990. It offers certification, training workshops, networking opportunity, contract plans and specifications, technical assistance and advocacy for bona fide minority disadvantaged businesses and individuals. Since opening its doors for business, BCIA has been instrumental in disadvantaged businesses participating in more than $650 million dollars in contracts and awards.

What is an MBE?

Minority Business Enterprise (MBE) is a business controlled by and a majority of which is owned by African Americans or Blacks. The term “MBE” means a business at least 51% of which is owned by Blacks, or in the case of publicly owned business, at least 51% of the stock of said business is owned by Blacks.

What is a DBE?

Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) is defined as business concern which is at least 51% owned, by one or more socially and economically disadvantaged individuals, or in the case of a publicly owned business, at least 51% of the stock is owned by disadvantaged individuals. Whose management and daily business operations are controlled by one or more of the socially, and economically disadvantaged individuals who own it.

What is the difference between “Socially Disadvantaged Individuals” and “Economically Disadvantaged Individuals”?

- a. Socially Disadvantaged Individuals means individuals who have been subject to racial or ethnic prejudice or cultural bias because of their identity as a member of a group without regard to their qualities as individuals or capabilities as a business.
- b. Economically Disadvantaged Individuals means socially disadvantaged individuals whose ability to compete in the free enterprise system is impaired due to diminished opportunities to obtain capital and credit as compared to others in the same line of business that are not socially disadvantaged.

Can a woman and a man own the company jointly?

Yes. A woman and a man can own the company jointly; however, the majority owner must be socially or economically disadvantaged and own 51% of the business and must demonstrate that his/her management and control of the company, and contribution of capital and/or expertise, and assumption of all profits and risks are commensurate with his/her ownership percentage.

What is NAICS?

The North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) classifies business establishments for the purpose of collecting, analyzing, and publishing statistical data related to the U.S. economy. The NAICS industry codes define establishments based on the activities in which they are primarily engaged. NAICS codes are also used for administrative, contracting, and tax purposes. NAICS is production oriented (not product oriented) and categorizes businesses with others that have similar methods of production.

What is the certification process?

A brief summary of certification process is as follows:

1. A business entity submits an application, along with the necessary supporting documentation, notarized sworn affidavit and certification fee.
2. An on-site visit is conducted at a pre-determined time with the majority business owner.
3. If certification is granted, the company's owner and assigned contact will receive an e-mail notification telling them that they have been certified and the BCIA Certificate has been mailed.
4. A formal letter is mailed to the owner if certification is denied.

What is the fee for certification?

Certification fee is $300

Is the certification fee refundable if certification is denied?

Yes in certain circumstances. Refunds are determined on case by case basis.

Why do I have to supply my company's financial information?

Financial documents, such as the Profit & Loss Statement, provide evidence that the applicant is conducting the business as described in the application. Documents such as the Balance Sheet and tax returns are used collectively to verify the ownership, management, and control by the owners. Please note that the certification process does not evaluate the company's profitability or financial viability. BCIA does not disclose confident business information to others.

What is the processing time for certification?

The processing time is generally two weeks from the date all documentation has been received from the firm requesting certification.

What is a site visit?

A mandatory visit to your business or home office usually conducted by the Executive Director. In this interview you will discuss your company's business structure and view any equipment mentioned on the certification application. Please note applicants whose offices are primarily housed in the confinements of their homes (home office) will be closely scrutinized per the nature of their business in determining their eligibility.

My application was denied can I reapply at a later date?

Yes. If the Executive Director denies certification or re-certification, then the applicant may appeal to the Board of Directors of the BCIA by submitting a written statement describing fully the basis for the appeal within two weeks of the receipt of the denial. The Board of Directors will then make a decision based upon the written submission and the file of the Executive Director. The denial of certification or re-certification by the Executive Director shall be effective immediately. If there is no appeal, then the decision of the Executive Director is final and binding. If there is an appeal, the decision of the Board of Directors shall be final and binding and no appeal or challenge will be made thereto. The firm shall not participate in the MBE/DBE program and shall not be eligible to re-apply for certification until one (1) year from the date of the initial denial letter.

Will BCIA disclose any of my information with third parties?

No. The BCIA shall safeguard from disclosure to unauthorized persons information that reasonably may be regarded as confidential business information.

When will my certification expire?

All BCIA certifications expire December 31st.

How do I recertify my business, and will my company have to re-submit all of the same documentation?

No. recertification is a much shorter process. Once certified, a MBE/DBE shall update its certification by submitting a renewal application BCIA no later than December 31st. Failure to submit a re-certification application will automatically result in de-certification from the program. If at any time there is a change in ownership or control of the firm, the MBE/DBE shall submit a new certification application to the BCIA reflecting the change in ownership. Certified companies are encouraged to maintain current certification status.

Is recertification automatic?

No. Recertification is not automatic. The owner is sent a courtesy reminder 30 days prior to the expiration date of the company's certification. However, BCIA does recommend the MBE/DBE marks its calendar as a reminder to begin the process 30 days prior to its expiration date.

Criteria for Certification

Birmingham Construction Industry Authority (BCIA) uses a two part process to ensure that the applicant company meets BCIA Standards. This will include a thorough review of the documentation presented and a site visit with the owner(s).

Please refer to the Guidelines for Certification & Recertification used to determine certification (recommended reading).

- The applicant's company must be at least 51% owned, by one or more socially and economically disadvantaged individuals, or in the case of a publicly owned business, at least 51% of the stock is owned by disadvantaged individuals.
- Whose management and daily business operations are controlled by one or more of the socially, and economically disadvantaged individuals who own it.
- MBE/DBE firms, shall have establish offices (branches) and maintain a reasonable staff presence in the Birmingham Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area.
